

Group Learning Programme

Overview

Our Group Learning Programme combines the expertise of highly qualified British educators with the benefits of collaborative learning. Designed for small groups of students with similar academic needs and objectives, the programme provides structured, engaging lessons that encourage participation, discussion, and peer learning.

By sharing lessons with other learners, students benefit from a more cost-effective solution while still receiving high-quality instruction, regular feedback, and opportunities for individual engagement.

Lessons are delivered online via Zoom, enabling students to learn together from anywhere in the world.
